Children's author and storyteller, Saviour Pirotta will be entertaining families with folk tales and spooky stories for Halloween.

Saviour has written over 100 children's book ranging from short novels to folk stories and collections of fairy tales.

Born on the island of Malta, his parents named him after Jesus the saviour, he has a brother called Joseph and his father was a carpenter! With such a name, people expected him to grow up liking Bible stories but, influenced by his Granny, Saviour preferred ghost stories, especially the gruesome kind that keep you awake at night!

As well as writing he has spent eight years as a storyteller for the Commonwealth Institute in London and also regularly visits schools and libraries around Britain.

Tickets for this fun family event are available at the library and will be on a first come first served basis.

The event will take place on the evening of Tuesday 26th October. Saviour will entertain and tell stories from 6 till 7pm and there will be refreshments served afterwards.
