

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Can you spare a couple of hours to assist with the planting of spring bulbs (crocus and daffodils) on Saturday October 8th 2005.

The Freckleton In Bloom Committee are organising the planting of many thousands of bulbs in and around the village and would appreciate help from any one with a couple of hours to spare.

If interested please meet at the War Memorial in the village centre at 09.00 on October 8th. (bring a trowel!!)

For further information, please telephone (01772) 499645